

BELLAIRE EDUCATOR NEW SUPERINTENDENT OF NEWARK SCHOOLS

Second Election Necessary On Account of Refusal of J. V. McMillan to Accept Position

SIX BALLOTS WERE NECESSARY FOR A CHOICE

Routine Business Transacted at Last Night's Meeting of Board of Education--Report of School Enumerators Shows Increase Over That of Last Year--Mr. Broome Objects to Method of Awarding Insurance Policy.

The Board of Education met in regular session Tuesday evening, the chief business transacted being the election of Wilson Hawkins of Bellaire, as superintendent of the Newark public schools for a period of two years at a salary of $2,500 per year. J. V. McMillan of Marietta, previously elected, having declined to accept the position.

The full board, Messrs. Kibler, Beggs, Broome, Conrad, Miller and Keller was present. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, the estimate of bills was allowed and the estimate of supplies for the ensuing year was referred to the supply committee.

Miss Ploy Paulner tendered her resignation as instructor of English in the High school and the same was accepted.

Several applications for positions as clerks to the superintendent and High school principal were received and filed the board leaving that matter to the incoming officials.

A communication was read from Director of Public Safety Christian notifying the board to install water meters in all the buildings. The matter was referred to the City Solicitor who will give an opinion regarding their installation.

A bid was received for the construction of a fence at Central school from the Cincinnati Iron Fence company, the firm agreeing to do the work and furnish the material for $200.

Bids were received from W. J. Henderson, C. J. Foster and F. J. Willard for the construction of horizontal bars for the gymnasium and the matter was referred to the building committee with power to act.

A proposition was next made and agreed to that the board purchase 175 microscopic slides from Prof. Williams at $17.50. A mimeograph will also probably be purchased for Superintendent Shinkins who has had his own machine at the office for the past five years and it is now useless.

Clerk Keller then brought up the matter of insurance and presented a policy on the Woodside building for $8,000 at an annual premium of $1.05 per hundred. He moved its acceptance, but before it was seconded Mr. Broome addressed the members and stated that he was a member of the insurance committee and had never been consulted on the policy. He did not wish snap judgment taken, but as a member of the committee wished to thoroughly investigate the matter and the company. Mr. Broome stated that he had the interest of the tax payers in view and proposed to investigate any business that came before any committee of which he was a member. There was no second to Mr. Keller's motion and the matter was referred back to the insurance committee.

The report of the school enumerators was read by Clerk Keller showing children of school age in the different wards as follows: First ward, 1,309; Second, 1,077; Third, 1,551; Fourth, 1,918; or a total of 5,855, a gain of 154 over 1910.

Mr. F. G. Handel, trustee officer and superintendent of repairs, made the yearly report to the board and among the interesting things noted were: Number of trunks, 163; number absent, 612; total number trunk and absent calls made 754; number sent to Lancaster, 9; to Delaware, 9; number bundles of clothes distributed, 61; number pairs of shoes donated from township trustees, 51; number families aided not included in the above, 15; number hours necessary for repairs, 411. This is equivalent to 45 days and 6 hours.

Mr. Handel thanked the teachers, principals and superintendent and board of education for their loyal support and enthusiastic encouragement which had aided him in his work.

Director of Manual Training W. E. Painter addressed the board on supplies needed for the ensuing year and suggested a number of changes in the training room that would be of very material benefit.

J. M. Carr of Barberton, O., was introduced and made an oral application for the position of superintendent of the local schools, a vacancy existing on account of the declination of J. V. McMillan, elected to the position at a former board meeting. Mr. Carr presented his case in an excellent manner and then excused himself pending the board's action in the matter.

A letter from J. V. McMillan of Marietta was read in which he declined the position of superintendent of the Newark schools to which he had been elected on Tuesday, June 13.

Next in order was the election of a superintendent and all applications which were on file were eligible. Clerk Keller had a list of 44, many of them from different states. It required six ballots to elect and after the first had been cast the contest narrowed down to Wilson Hawkins of Bellaire and R. J. Kiefer of Upper Sandusky, O., the former winning out in the end. The vote by ballot was as follows:

First ballot: Kibler, Hawkins; Broome, Kiefer; Beggs, Allen; Conrad, McVeigh; Miller, Kiefer; Keller, Carr.

Second ballot: Kibler, Timmons; Broome, McVeigh; Beggs, Reynolds; Conrad, Kiefer; Miller, McVeigh; Keller, Bryant.

Third ballot: Kibler, Hawkins; Broome, Kiefer; Beggs, Hawkins; Conrad, Kiefer; Miller, Kiefer; Keller, Hawkins.

Fourth ballot: Kibler, Hawkins; Broome, Kiefer; Beggs, Hawkins; Conrad, McVeigh; Miller, McVeigh; Keller, Brant.

Fifth ballot: Kibler, Hawkins; Broome, Kiefer; Beggs, Hawkins; Conrad, Kiefer; Miller, Kiefer; Keller, Hawkins.

Sixth ballot: Kibler, Hawkins; Broome, Kiefer; Beggs, Hawkins; Conrad, Kiefer; Miller, McVeigh; Keller, Hawkins.

Mr. Hawkins receiving a majority of the votes was declared elected, and the same was made unanimous. Upon motion the election was for a term of two years at a salary of $2,500 per year.

The new superintendent, Wilson Hawkins, is at present in charge of the Bellaire schools, which have 2,300 pupils and 60 teachers. His present salary is $2,200 per year. Mr. Hawkins is 37 years of age, is married and the father of two children. His experience consists of three years in country schools, four years at Unionport, O., one year principal and eight years superintendent at Mingo Junction, O., and three years at Bellaire. Mr. Hawkins holds a state life certificate.

BONES FOUND IN FURNACE

Chicago, June 21.—What may develop into a murder mystery was reported to the police today when Herman Frank turned over the bones of a human body wrapped in a blood-stained skirt which he had found stuffed in the furnace in a house on the north side into which he had just moved. Only the skull and one leg were missing.

Mr. Handel thanked the teachers,

GUNCOTTON BOMB FOUND IN OFFICE AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, June 21.—A bomb made of guncotton one and one-quarter inches in diameter and 18 inches long, said by detectives in the district attorney's office to be filled with guncotton, was found at the Hall of Records.

It was at this place that two sticks of dynamite, attached to a clockwork firing device, were found last September.

Three men, Connors, Maple and Bender, were recently indicted by the grand jury for the alleged attempt to dynamite the structure.

SEAMEN'S STRIKE AGAINST MORGAN LINE HAS ENDED

New York, June 21.—The differences between the coastwise steamship companies and their seamen were adjusted last night, bringing to an end the strike against the Morgan line, and averting a threatened general strike of the coastwise seamen. The agreement was reached at a conference of company officials and representatives of the union.

H. P. Griffin, vice president of the International Seamen's Union, said there had been concessions on both sides, but that the various steamship companies had in the main met the demands of the men and only minor details remain to be adjusted.

Following a day of disorders along the water front, where several parties of strikebreakers were attacked by mobs, it had been announced by the union officials that a general strike would be called unless an agreement with the companies was reached before midnight.

New York June 21.—Members of the striking seamen's union returned to their ships today and all danger of a general strike which has demoralized local shipping was averted. The men received a raise of $2.50 a month in wages as well as other concessions.

CASE WILL NOT BE HEARD UNTIL NEXT OCTOBER

The firm of Salton & Jones, attorneys for the jail men who have filed a suit against C. L. V. Holtz, as treasurer, to restrain him from collecting the thousand dollar Aiken tax, has received a telegram from James H. McKenny, clerk of the supreme court of the United States, stating that that tribunal was now in recess and would not be in session until October 10th next, when the firm would be admitted to practice before that court.

This means that the cases cannot be heard until at least that time, being brought up before that court upon an appeal from the decision of the Ohio supreme court, upholding the right of the treasurer to collect the Aiken tax from men accused of selling liquor in dry territory.

The question of the constitutionality of the treasurer's proceedings in attempting to collect the tax by distraint will be submitted to the United States supreme court for final decision.

BOTH SIDES PROMISE SENSATIONS IN THE DIEGEL BRIBERY CASE

Columbus, June 21.—Ten tentative jurors were in the box when court opened this morning for the trial of Rodney J. Diegel, senate sergeant-at-arms, indicted on a charge of aiding and abetting Senator L. R. Andrews in soliciting a bribe from a Burns' detective. It is impossible to tell when the jury can be completed and testimony begun, because after the jury box is filled each side may exercise four peremptory challenges.

K. M. Turner, of New York, inventor of the dictograph, which is expected to play the leading role, has been called here by the state and will explain the workings of the machine to the jury.

With the approach of the hour when the actual testimony will start both the state and the defense are claiming they will make sensational declarations in their opening statements to the jury.

STATE QUESTIONS JUROR'S VERACITY

Columbus, June 21.—The monotony of the examination of jurors in the Diegel trial was broken this afternoon when the veracity of James W. Berry, a tentative juror, was questioned by the state. Prosecutor Turner immediately called Detective Candell, who is in the employ of the state, to the stand. Candell testified that he had seen Berry and Diegel talking together in the Virginia Hotel yesterday afternoon. Berry denied that he had been at the hotel or had talked with Diegel.

Diegel was later called to the stand and said that he had not talked with Berry. Judge Kinkaid, however, dismissed the juror from the panel.

HOUSE PASSED WOOL SCHEDULE REVISION

Washington, June 21.—By a vote of 221 to 160 the House today passed the Underwood bill revising the woolen schedule of its tariff law. As the Democratic majority in the house is only 67, the majority by which the measure passed shows that 24 Republicans voted for the bill.

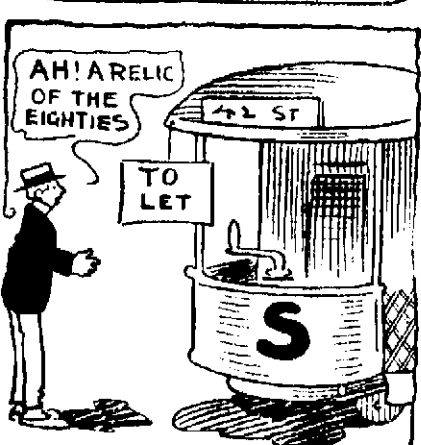

Representative Sharp, of the Fourteenth district, who opposed the bill, in the caucus, finally decided to cast his lot with his party and voted for the measure. All of the other Ohio Democrats were recorded in favor of the measure. The five Republicans from Ohio voted against the passage of the bill.

Substantially the entire day was devoted to the consideration of the bill under the five minute rule for the purpose of amendment. All were rejected. And after a motion to reconsider had been voted down the bill was passed in the identical form in which it came from the committee. It reduces the duty on raw wool to 20 per cent ad valorem, and makes a reduction of more than one half in the duties on wool manufactures.

Immediately preceding the final vote, a motion offered by Representative Payne, of New York, that the bill be returned to the Ways and Means committee with instructions that it await a report from the Tariff Board on the woolen industry before making final report of the bill was lost by a vote of 189 to 118.

After the bill had passed a message was read from President Taft in response to a request which had been made for certain information from the tariff board in regard to the wool question. The message stated that the desired information could not be furnished at this time.

LONDON OFFICIALS WILL GUARD AGAINST A POSSIBLE TRAGEDY

Crowds Will be Enormous and Great Precaution Will be Taken to Avoid all Danger

TWO THOUSAND AMBULANCES ENGAGED FOR DUTY

Streets of London are Congested by Coronation Visitors and Everywhere is a Sea of Horses, Wagons, Busses and Automobiles-- Coronation Paraphernalia Guard- ed by Giant Life Guards.

London, June 21.—While the London populace is in a festive mood in anticipation of tomorrow's coronation of a king and queen, city and government officials upon whom devolve the work of guarding the safety of the public, are haunted by the fear that the day may bring forth a tragedy. It is the tragedy of the crowd that is feared, rather than the act of any irresponsible or criminal mind.

The authorities have engaged nearly 2,000 ambulances for duty during the coronation procession. Hundreds of doctors and surgeons will be held in readiness. Emergency hospitals or rather rooms—have been engaged. In fact, every precaution has been taken that it is possible to take but still the authorities realize that in such a human press, there are always dangers that cannot be guarded against.

The congestion in the streets has already put a practical stop to all business. For fully a mile on each side of the Bank of England all thoroughfares are almost a solid jam of vehicles.

The chauffeur of a taxicab was offered a bonus of $25 if he would get a passenger to the railway station in time. Within the first block his taxicab caught in the vehicular maelstrom and he spent a futile 30 minutes in covering five blocks. He missed the train.

Similar conditions surround all the railway stations. Every where one turns, it is a sea of horses, wagons, automobiles, busses and the like. No such confusion has been seen in London streets since the wild night in celebration of the relief of Ladysmith in the Boer war.

The coronation regalia, including the crowns and robes and other paraphernalia worth hundreds of thousands of dollars, was taken from the palace today to Westminster Abbey. During the transfer to the royal van, the palace was surrounded by giant life guards. Never was treasure more carefully guarded, although it is probable that the people were so awe-struck by the scene that none would have had the courage to lay profane hands on the royal insignia even had the opportunity afforded. Once installed in the Abbey a company of life guards, looking like typical "beef-eaters" of English fiction began their vigil over the regalia, which will not be touched until used in the coronation.

The royalty and elite of London, both the home product and the visiting variety, were not early astir today, owing to the fatigue following the round of festivities of Monday and Tuesday which culminated last night in the Shakespearean memorial ball at Albert Hall. For splendor nothing in the lifetime of any of those present ever equalled it. There may have been something in the reign of the ancient Tudors that approached it in magnificence but your modern Englishman doesn't believe it and insists that a new world's record has been established.

Londoners whose business compels them to be within the territory certain to be disturbed by tomorrow's coronation procession and by Friday's "royal progress" are preparing as if for a siege. Unless they reach their places of business by 6 or 7 o'clock tomorrow morning they will be unable to do so for two days. And having once reached them, they will be unable to get out for two days.

Whole miles of interesting streets will be closed. Roughly the area will be about 2 1/2 miles across from north to south and about 3 1/2 miles from east to west. This area covers the center of London—the very heart of the business world.

Across the thoroughfares leading into this forbidden city, massive gates have been thrown. These gates will be closed as soon as they think the streets to which they give access are full enough. Once closed it will be impossible to pass through them—in or out. For a brief interval tomorrow night they will be opened but they will be closed so early on the following morning that business men in the city will not dare to pass out.

In anticipation of this two days, the unfortunate who must withstand it are laying food supplies for the delivery of food stuffs while the festivities are in progress will be impossible putting up cots in stores and offices and arranging with communication with the outside world by telephone. The hotels and restaurants within the closed areas will be able to care for only a small fraction of the customers the throngs for the better to afford.

Patriotism got the sense of many of the striking sailors today when they signified their willingness to man the boats that are scheduled to carry the crowds to the coronation at Spithead on Saturday. They will resume their strike on Sunday.

THE ADVOCATE'S POLICY IS TO PRINT THE NEWS

The Advocate prints today, two paragraphs taken from the American Tribune's columns Tuesday evening regarding the proposed transfer of the Newark club to Piqua.

The Tribune has been strangely silent on the question of the transfer.

The Advocate believes that the Newark fans are entitled to the facts in the case and that no effort should be made to cover up any scheme by which the fans will suffer.

Owner Kiene makes no denial that he has visited Piqua and worked with the committee there in their efforts to get enough money subscribed to guarantee the safe financing of the baseball proposition in Piqua.

He makes no denial of the fact that he has been with the team but a few days of the fifteen or twenty on the road.

The Advocate was not prompted to publish the facts regarding the Piqua deal by any feeling against Mr. Kiene or members of the team. It was merely a case of where the Advocate followed its news policy of publishing all the news.

The Advocate will regret to have the Molders leave Newark, whether it is taken to Piqua or elsewhere, but its Sporting Editor could not see where the suppression or publication of the facts regarding the pending deal could possibly prevent or encourage its successful termination.

It is apparent that the paper across the street played favorites in its suppression of the news from Piqua and the favorite was not the fan.

The Advocate has always regretted that the attendance in Newark has not been encouraging to the club owner or the players, and it regrets now that the players have been subjected to any unjust criticism from the bleachers.

There is no doubt that if the team does remain in Newark and maintains its present standard of efficiency, there will be no fault to find with the attendance.

It has always been the case in minor leagues that the fans will not turn out to see a team play losing ball, no matter whether this result comes from poor umpiring or poor playing or bad luck. It is merely the inconsistency of the baseball fan and no antidote has ever been found yet to remedy this.

If the team does go to Piqua, it will carry with it the heartiest good wishes of the Advocate for players and owner alike, and it hopes that Owner Kiene will come out at the end of the season financially even, and that the players with the present club will be disposed of at a good profit.

WHICH STATEMENT ARE YOU TO BELIEVE, DEAR FAN?

(From Tuesday's Tribune.)

Columbus, O., June 20.—The Ohio State Baseball League is holding a meeting at the Neil House today, to ratify the transfer of the Newark franchise and team to Piqua on account of lack of support in the former city. The transfer will take effect Thursday.

(From Tuesday's Tribune.)

The gush about moving the team to Piqua is laughable. Nothing on earth would induce Harry Kiene to take the club to Piqua, if he can possibly help it. All he wants is a substantial interest shown and now that the team is giving the fans here what they want, the attendance will be such that Mr. Kiene cannot afford to leave.

Lancaster Fans Are Using Their Hammers

Lancaster, June 21.—Lancaster's baseball team will be strengthened at once is the report circulated around town. President George Ruff left Tuesday morning on a short trip after something. Ruff would not make known his intentions. Suffice to say that he was going to get some ball players.

The way the team has been going for the past week or so it is high time that something is done. It is a familiar remark heard around the city by the fans who have been supporting the team. Several very loyal fans stated Monday evening that they were through with the team, unless it is braced and produces some baseball class. The fans will not attend the games with the kind of ball playing the Lanks put up Monday. The infield looked like a weather beaten bird's nest and played a rotten offense. They disgusted the fans and made the dope bad all the way.

If the Lanks are going to stay in the race it is time that something is being done to strengthen the infield and also the right field. The pitching is very well up and with proper support could get by, but not with the kind of ball that was displayed yesterday on the diamond.

Something is going to be done and done soon or the Lanks will all go to pieces. The fans are out and if you can't get their support the game is a dead issue.

TRANSFER OF CLUB NOT YET ACCOMPLISHED

In a long distance telephone conversation with the Advocate's sporting editor, President Robert W. Head of the Ohio State League, said Tuesday night that no official action had been taken by the league directors regarding the transfer of the Newark club and franchise.

He said that Marion would play in Newark Wednesday as scheduled, pending further consideration of the matter by the directors today at Columbus.

His statement was immediately bulletined in the window by the Advocate, and this paper was the first to give the fans an official report from the Columbus meeting.

The league directors continue their deliberations in Columbus today, when the matter will be finally settled.

Marion is playing this afternoon at Weir Park, and it is possible that another game will be played Thursday. This fact, however, will be announced as soon as word is received from Columbus regarding the action of the league directors.

Owner Kiene could not be seen today, and it is presumed that he remained in Columbus to be present at the meeting of the league directors.

Newark's splendid hitting, coupled with their everlasting determination to win, was responsible for the defeat of the Lima aggregation in an eleven-inning 5-4 seance at Weir Park Tuesday afternoon. It was one of the old-fashioned sort of a game. It carried the fans back several seasons and the four hundred or more bugs who stuck 'til the last dog was hung, rooted until they were hoarse. They had the satisfaction of seeing the Molders leave the field victorious. The best team won and, though defeated, the Beane-eaters were by no means disgraced for they gave the Molders the hardest run they have experienced this season.

Newark took the lead in the second but did not hold it for very long. Taylor, who relieved Kline because of a minor injury to the big sorrel top, had a bad inning in the sixth and Lima forged ahead. It was uphill work for Newham's men from that time forward and every Lima man worked his head off to keep the Newarkites down.

A sensational rally in the ninth gave Newark two runs and tied the score. They should have won out in this frame but snappy fielding by the visitors and bad breaks for the home club prolonged the session two more frames, only to have it end with one grand pyrotechnic display put on by Messrs Baggan and Newham. Their two doubles did the business and Donalds got the credit for a defeat while Goshorn got the glory for the victory.

The game was featured throughout by brilliant fielding and hitting. The batting of the Newark team was particularly heavy and seven of the local players annexed hits for extra bases. Two of the drives by Newark players would have been good for three bases had the hitters been fleet of foot but Blue got one and him leg stopped him at first. Rudolph got another pretty drive to the fence, but could travel no further than second, owing to an impediment in his running. All three of the Newark pitchers who worked in the game pitched excellent ball, though Taylor had a bad session in the sixth. Goshorn, taking up the burden practically cold, worked beautifully even if he had only one night's rest after a hard victory Monday.

As a pinch hitter, McConnell, who warms up the pitchers when Blue is busy, is all the candy and his double in the ninth put two on and was certainly a teamer, and when the bat cracked, Pitcher Munk's heart cracked at the same time and he went to the bench willing to acknowledge his defeat at the hands of superior forces.

For Lima, Big Nessor, at the first corner did some fine work. His three hits helped mightily and his triple in the eighth, scoring Houtz ahead of him was one that had the earmarks of a homer, but had been caught at the plate by some snappy fielding work by Messrs. Plummer, Baggan, Prysock and Blue.

Blue was in the game at every stage and his heady work was apparent many times at critical moments and the victory reflects credit upon him as well as upon those who were directly concerned in the scoring of the winning runs.

THE SCORES.

Newark's first run was made in two flashes and then it was all over. Geyer opened the second inning with a smash to center field, good for two bases. Blue drove one almost to the same spot and "Lefty" came crapping home. Rudolph, Munn and Prysock were returned in order.

In the seventh, Okey opened the frame by fanning out. Newham juggled one from McConnell's bat and Mack was safe. Houtz walked and Nessor drove one through Rudolph, filling the bases. Sandheer was an easy out, Taylor to Munn, but Friend hit safely, scoring two. Young followed with another single and Nessor counted. Then Friend was caught between first and second by some pretty work by Blue, Prysock and Munn.

Newark pushed one across the rubber again in the seventh when Rudolph opened with a single. Munn bunted and the effort went for a hit, Nessor fielding the ball with no one to cover first. Prysock walked and the cushions were all heaped down by a Molder. Taylor hit Ruddy at the Sandheer who caught when Baggan plate. Munn scored when Baggan hit an infield ball which was not fielded quickly enough to catch the big first sacker at the plate, nor was the play fast enough to get Baggan. Munk retired the next two men at the plate on easy rollers to the pitcher's box.

A pass issued to Houtz in the eighth, followed by Nessor's terrific smash to the right center field fence, scored Houtz and the four runs looked like an awful lot to the fans.

They counted not, however, on the come-back ability of the Molder bunch. They did come back and they did it with a vengeance, too, in the ninth. They drove Munk to the bench with banging head and they tied the score and put the home team once more in the position to win the game.

Munn opened with a nice single to center field. Prysock was regarded as a dangerous man and he was walked. Here Manager Newham made a quick change and sent McConnell, utility catcher, into the battle to win a place in the hall of fame. He won it. His double was nicely placed and it went screaming over Sandheer's head, far out of reach of either Houtz or Okey and the two fleet footed Molders, Munn and Prysock, raced home with the runs that tied the score.

When the ball was relayed to Munk in the diamond, he didn't even turn to see if he had a chance to get Prysock. He stopped the ball and dropped his head while the Lima manager called him home.

Donalds was the victim selected to stop the rally and he did it temporarily, for though he passed a man and allowed one hit, no more scores came in that inning.

Goshorn took the place vacated by Taylor when McConnell replaced him in the batting order, and he did nobly. He had very little opportunity to take the kinks out of his arm, left after Monday's hard going, but he allowed none of the Beane-eaters to reach first, they were all retired in order.

Newark threatened in the tenth when Rudolph opened with a double. Munn was an easy out for Donalds alone and Prysock drove a scorcher to left back of short. Houtz made a quick recovery and hurled the ball to Donalds who caught Ruddy at the plate. Goshorn's effort resulted in naught and the game proceeded.

In the eleventh, with the head of the batting list up, it was different. Baggan poled out a dandy double to left field. Newham didn't hesitate long when he faced Donalds and he smashed one in the snoot and sent it to the fence and the game was over.

The game was a hummer and will last a long time in the memory of the fans as the best game put up by the Ohio State League Molders this season. The score:

S.S.S. CURES OLD BLOOD DISEASES

Contagious Blood Poison is responsible for a great many old blood troubles, such as scrofulous affections, skin eruptions, catarrhal troubles, rheumatism, ulcerating sores, etc. There is no such thing as ridding the system of these effects by killing the poisonous germs. Any medicine powerful enough to accomplish this would also destroy many of the delicate linings and tissues, and wreck the constitution. The only way to cure old blood troubles is to REMOVE the cause from the circulation, and for this purpose nothing is equal to S.S.S. It goes into the blood, and drives out every taint and poison, and makes this vital fluid pure, rich and nourishing. S.S.S. has long been known as the greatest of all blood purifiers and many thousands have rid themselves of old blood diseases by its use. It ALWAYS removes the impurity from the blood. Book on the blood and medical advice free to all. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

and there's no telling where it will stop as Manager Newham, who knows the league thoroughly, declares that his club is fit to fight it out with any of the four above or the three below—Ohio State Journal.

Third Baseman Connell and Manager O'Day of Springfield quarreled in a hotel dining room at Chillicothe over a play on the field Monday afternoon. Connell was suspended and fined $100 by O'Day and Charles himself drew a fine in police court of $25.00.

Owner Watkins has come all the way from Indianapolis to investigate the trouble at Chillicothe. It has probably occurred to the foxy old owner that his high salaried team is not as high up in the race as it should be.

Outfielder Potts, who took the place of Jones for the Cobblers, has just completed his studies in the law department of a Cleveland school. He will practice this winter.

Every newspaper in the Ohio State circuit is "hep" to the fact that a movement is on foot to transfer the Newark club and franchise to Piqua, except the esteemed American Tribune of Newark.

Pitcher Gouliat of the Marion club is still sulking. Marion has received many tempting offers for his services but Manager Lewis says he is worth $2,000 and if he won't play in Marion, he can't play in any organized baseball league.

Johnny Kling is mad at Director Page of the Boston Nationals, and has refused to even speak to him. The reason that "Jawn" is on the "outs" with Page is because the latter called him "a has been" when he heard of the recent deal. To be traded to the Boston club and then be called a "has been" at the same time is enough to make anybody mad.

Ohio State writers were a little mixed on the date of the transfer of the Newark club to Piqua. A dispatch in the Sunday's Enquirer caused the misunderstanding. The paragraph said the transfer was made Saturday and the first game would be played Tuesday. The transfer may not be accomplished before Thursday or Friday.

First Baseman Rowan cracked out four hits in succession in the first Browns-White Sox game and Manager Wallace showed his appreciation by putting in a new first sacker named Black in the second game.

By today's shift of the close-racing Ohio State league clubs Marion goes into Newark to tackle the Molders. Lima, without Caskie of Mexico any longer, vacates Newark and will hook up with Lancaster. Hamilton comes up to Chillicothe and Portsmouth will be the battle ground for Springfield. Newark's advance is really one of the league's sensations

Bobby Keefe fanned six Cardinals in succession and pitched a masterful game after Fromme had lost it.

Pitcher Eddie Stack of the Phillies is mourning the loss of a diamond studded watch box worth $200 which a New York "dip" got from him.

More trouble for Cleveland—Terry Turner is out of the game with a wrenched back.

No attendance records were broken in celebration of the Boston Nationals return. But the few who were out gave Captain Kling a hearty reception.

Kling and Kaiser, two of the Cubs traded to Boston, have been batting about .001-2 since putting on Boston uniforms. Must be something in environment. Honus Wagner is now trying his hand at first base. Needless to say he is doing well. Honus would do well at anything, except possibly as a ballet dancer.

Luderus, the merry smasher of the Phillies, was there with a single, double and homer. And Chance gave him to Philadelphia, along with trading stamps for a third rate pitcher whom he had to release. Five runs in the ninth turned the count in the Highlanders favor. There was no horseshoe about it either, as the runs came from solid clouting.

If he goes along at his present pace, Jimmy Doyle, the Cub third coroner, will lead his brethren by a wide margin.

Detroit certainly has it on the western teams in the American.

There is no time like the present for doing the things we don't have to do.

MATRON

FOR GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL HOME AT DELAWARE WILL NOT BE INSTALLED JULY 1.

State Board Can Not Find Right Person for the Position, as Few Women Have Necessary Training.

Columbus, June 21.—Because the board of trustees has found it is impossible to obtain the services of a woman qualified for the post, no matron will be installed as head of the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware by July 1, as an enactment by the legislature recently adjourned, provides.

Satisfactory talent for this position cannot be obtained in Ohio, it is claimed, and the board has sought, so far in vain, for a woman from the outside who possesses the necessary training.

Yesterday a conference was held between Governor and Mrs. Harmon and members of the board. Several applications from women in the Eastern and Middle Eastern states were considered and promptly rejected. It was pointed out that the woman taking such a position must not only possess executive ability, but must be a keen judge of human nature.

"We have hunted in vain for an officer who would take care of the onerous duties involved in such a post," said a member of the board yesterday. "One of the chief obstacles is found in the fact that but few women have the necessary training. When it is taken into consideration that there are 525 girls of all grades held there for almost every conceivable crime, you can readily see that a high order of ability is required."

"Not only will the matron be held responsible for the care of her charges in the institution but she will have oversight of as many more who are constructive prisoners of the institution, out on parole. The pay is $2000 a year. It is by no means a high compensation and is really one of the main obstacles in the way of procuring a good head matron."

Several women occupying similar positions in other states have been approached, but the board found they either were getting more pay than Ohio has to offer, or were so bound by family and other ties that Ohio's offer did not prove attractive to them.

Boston has been asked to furnish material for the office, but even the Hub has completely failed. An agent of the board recently canvassed a list of possible available in that city, but was obliged to reject them all.

It is the purpose of the board to dispense, as far as possible, with the services of men at the girls' home. Only such work as cannot possibly be performed by women will be undertaken by the men.

The law for the proposed prison for female felons which was put through mainly because of the persistent efforts of Mrs. Edward O'Rourke, and other leaders of the D. A. R., provides that it shall be in the hands of a woman matron.

THE CHANGES OF THE EYE

People who do not use glasses have an idea that one pair of lenses is enough to last a life time. Such is really far from being the fact. It is necessary to have the lenses in ones glasses changed every three or four years in order to accommodate the vision and give one perfect artificial sight in proportion to the growing requirements of the eye. After fifty years old one should have the lenses changed every two years to be sure of having good sight permanently. It is always a dangerous mistake to neglect the eyes or to wear glasses that are not exactly adapted to the individual. Correct glasses rest the eyes. The wrong glasses tire them and spoil them. They should not be too strong or too weak, but exactly right. It is impossible to get such a fit by guess work, nor can an inexperienced optician be expected to prescribe the proper lenses. The popular opinion is that the young or old who have anything the matter with their eyesight should at once go to Haynes Bros., the well known opticians at 8 North Park place for advice and a free examination of the eyes. Practical experience dictates their sound advice and their charges for the highest grade of work are most reasonable. 21-23-25

Burman's attempt will feature the last day of the national circuit races. St. Paul, Minn., when he completed the course in 19 seconds.

Stone in Bladder Removed Without Surgical Operation

In the Spring of 1904, I was confined to my bed with kidney trouble and thought that I would never recover. I took a lot of medicine but did not realize any benefit from anything. Finally saw Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root advertisement and sent for a sample bottle and thought the sample bottle helped me, so I bought more of the medicine from my Druggist and after using a few bottles discharged a very large stone from my bladder. After passing this stone my health was very much improved and I have been able to continue my business without any serious sickness.

J. L. KNOWLES, Headland, Ala. Personally appeared before me this 8th day of September, 1909, J. Loftus Knowles who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

J. W. WHIDDON, Notary Public.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling about the kidneys and bladder.

When writing, be sure and mention this paper. Regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

It is reported that the water is rapidly dropping in Buckeye Lake and is a serious cause for alarm all on the lake. At the present rate of fall the lake will be much lower by August than it has been for years.

SEE ATTACKED BY FATHER OF MISS BRIDGES

SENSATION IN WITNESS ROOM AT TRIAL OF LEADER OF "FREE LOVERS."

Testimony Offered Against See Is Unprintable—Miss Bridges Now Charges Faithfully to "Husband Teacher."

Chicago, June 21.—An attempted physical attack upon Evelyn Arthur See, head of the cult of the Absolute Life by Steven Bridges, father of Mildred Bridges and Mildred's confession that she had addressed her "teacher" as husband featured today's testimony in the See trial.

Much of the writings from the "Book of Truth" and the construction placed upon them by the state is unprintable. Mildred Bridges was on the stand all the morning and the attorneys for the state tried in vain to shake her faith in the "revelator" and to make her tell of her life in the "Temple" of the Junior Commonwealth.

During a short recess she entered the witness room and was confronted by Bridges, who rushed at him with clenched fists. An attack was prevented by Bridges' attorneys.

State Game Wardens Capture Net Users in Clark County

Columbus, O., June 21.—There are few suckers in the seas more aptly named than those Ohioans who keep illegal seines and expect to put it over on state fish and game wardens.

State Warden John C. Speaks yesterday received word from Springfield that half a dozen Clark county men had been corralled by Deputies Wagner and Baxter, who found their seines. As a result they were assessed $200 in fines.

New York, June 21.—Mrs. Caroline S. Jewell, suing for $25,000 for breach of promise to marry, when it was found that when her former husband divorced her, she was prohibited from marrying within his life time.

Annual Meeting of Ohio Music Teachers

The annual meeting of the Ohio Music Teachers' Association will be held in Dayton, June 27, 28 and 29. The meetings of this association always afford much enjoyment to both teachers and music lovers in general. The meeting held in Columbus last June was one of the most successful in the history of the association.

The following well-known music pedagogues will have charge of special sections: Theodore Bohman, Cincinnati, piano; Edgar Stillman Kelley, Oxford, theory and composition; S. R. Gaines, Columbus, voice and interpretation; Charles Clemens, Cleveland, organ; Charles K. Holst, Dayton, violin; Raymond H. Burke, Oxford, public school music. This latter will be an especially interesting feature and quotations on elementary and secondary school music will be under the leadership of Mrs. Marie Burt Parr, director of music in the high school of Cleveland, and Mr. Karl Gherkins, instructor at Oberlin Conservatory. The above are only a few of those who will take part, and complete announcement will be made later.

Among the artists who will appear in musical programs are Miss Edgar Stillman Kelley with the Holstein string quartet, presenting Mr. Kelley's new piano quintet; Sergei Klensk of Berlin and New York, baritone, in leader program; Harold Henry of Chicago, piano program; Charles Clemens, Cleveland, in organ recital; Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Gaines, Columbus, in song recital; and Mr. Emil Sturmer, late of Dresden, in violin recital, besides other well-known artists with whom negotiations are pending.

THE JULY CENTURY.

A striking feature of the July Century for all story readers will be the first part of a short novelette by Edith Wharton—a study of New York society and of certain curious and significant changes in its attitude toward those men and women who are divorced and remarried. The story is told with Edith Wharton's characteristic insight and skill.

China's Poverty.

Another important feature of the July Century is the account of "The Struggle for Existence in China," by Edward Alsworth Ross, professor of sociology in the University of Wisconsin, a vivid picture of grinding mass-poverty which can scarcely be conceived of in the Occident of today—"a state of society which has not been seen in the west since the middle ages, and which will probably never recur on this planet."

Edison on Inventors.

Edison believes that invention can be taught. His views on how men may be taught to develop their latent inventive instincts and ways of stimulating the imagination and on other important and interesting topics (including Shakespeare), are told in the July Century by Walter P. Warren, who recently interviewed the great inventor at his home.

LITERARY NOTES.

James Ford Rhodes, the historian, will contribute a number of historical papers to Scribner's Magazine in the near future. The July number contains "The Railroad Riots of 1877," a fair and judicial inquiry into the causes and results of a disturbance that almost reached the proportions of a revolution.

Mrs. Burton Harrison in her "Recollections" in the July Scribners, pictures New York society in the seventies, with many amusing incidents and characters, among them Brown, the sexton of Grace church. Mrs. Andrews, the author of "The Perfect Tribune," can write a good college story, as those who read "The Captains" will recall. She contributes to the July Scribner "The Courage of the Commonwealth," one of her most dramatic short stories, beginning at Yale on "Tap Day," and ending three years later on the day of the Harvard-Yale baseball match.

Doan's Remedy cures constipation without griping, nausea, nor any weakening effect. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents per box.

A HINT FOR RENTERS.

It's a good plan to keep in close touch with the "For Rent" properties—the houses, apartments and flats—and if you are in business and may be influenced by an opportunity to make an advantageous move in your location, the "For Rent" situation in business property will be equally as interesting a topic. For rent lists are always in season—and a greater part of the most desirable locations are listed in the Wants. Many of them never bear a placard inviting the inspection of passers by, but are listed exclusively in the Want Columns.

To have at your command a most complete list of property that's for rent, watch the Wants. It's a good plan, too, to attract the attention of property owners by sending a want of your own, telling just what kind of property will appeal to you most. From the replies you may select a location at a fair price just to your liking.

Simple Talks on Health.

The First Wealth.

EVERY man so concerned with great philosophical abstractions as Emerson, got down to brass tacks when he said, "The first wealth is health." Yet this is a wealth few people consider until they lose it. They do not value it at all for the treasure it is. With health, what may a man not do; without it, what can he do? With health, the world is before him; without health, it passes him by. The one who should try to properly realize the value of the wealth he has and to do what he can to preserve it, is the man or woman with health. The one who has lost his health is usually making all efforts possible to regain it. But the one who has overvaluing health squanders it recklessly.

Obedience to a few simple laws will enable one to keep his health. But the one who is healthy, usually recklessly breaks all these laws, and keeps on breaking them until the consequences are upon him. He smokes too much, and so affects his heart. He eats wrongly, and so upsets his digestion. He takes no exercise and gets little fresh air, and so vitiates his blood. He seems to think there will be a special dispensation of providence for him, and he will escape all these ills. But he won't. As sure as the years follow upon the years, he will in course of time reap the harvest of ill health he has been sowing. And all the business success he may have gathered, perhaps by this very neglect of his health, will be of no value to him. The first wealth is health.

These warnings are everywhere, yet men and women go serenely on to the fate that is waiting them by the roadside. They overwork, over-rush, and over-worry, and nervous prostration taps them on the shoulder and says, "Come with me." They eat and drink improperly, and Bright's disease drops into step with them, and henceforth is their companion. They consume innumerable cigarettes, and heart failure shadows them. It would be a comedy, this way we live, were it not a tragedy.

Some of us like to stick mottoes up on the walls of our room, or our office, or upon our desk. A good one to place where it will stare us right in the face is, "The first wealth is health."

STATE COMMISSIONER DEFINES NEW TAXATION LAW IN LETTER OF INSTRUCTION TO OFFICIALS

Information of the greatest interest to county, township, municipal and school officials, relative to the provisions of the Smith one per cent tax law, is contained in the following letter which the state tax commission has just sent out to the county auditors throughout the state.

The letter defines the law in all its particulars, and this will be of great importance to all bodies in the different taxing districts. It is as follows:
"To county Auditors: Many inquiries are being received by this commission relative to the provisions of the act commonly known as the Smith one per cent law. It is therefore deemed advisable to promulgate the following with reference thereto:

"This law provides for separate limitations upon the amount and rate per cent of taxes that may be levied in any taxing district as follows:

"1. The aggregate amount of taxes which may be levied upon the taxable property in any taxing district, including sinking fund and interest and levies for state, county, township,
municipal, school and all other purposes in the year 1911, shall not exceed the aggregate amount of taxes levied in the year 1910; the aggregate levied in the year 1912 may exceed the aggregate in 1910 by not more than six per cent; the aggregate in the year 1913 may exceed the aggregate in the year 1910 by not more than nine per cent, and the aggregate in the year 1911, or any year thereafter, may exceed the aggregate in 1910 by not more than twelve per cent.

"2. If to produce any such aggregate it will require a greater levy than ten mills, then only such amount may be levied as will be produced by the levy of the maximum rate of ten mills on each dollar of the tax valuation of the taxable property in any taxing district, exclusive of levies for interest and sinking fund purposes as provided in Section 5449-2 of the general code;
and such additional levies as may be authorized by a vote of the people as provided in Sections 5449-3 of the general code.

"3. The aggregate rate which may be levied in any taxing district for all purposes, including additional levies authorized by a vote of the people,
shall not, in any event, exceed 15
mills.

"4. Each taxing board or authority is limited as follows: For all county purposes, not to exceed three mills;

TO PALE THIN, PEOPLE.
Druggist W. A. Erman & Son Offers
to Pay For Same if it Does Not Make Thin People Fat.

Pale thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no
good.

Samose the remarkable flesh forming food should be used by all who are pale, weak and thin. It mingles with the food and aids assimilation so that when taken for a short time, Nature will soon assert her normal
powers, and the food that is eaten
will give strength and good flesh.

The woman who longs for rosy
cheeks and the plumpness of beauty, should use Samose. The man who wants to be strong and well and gain health and good flesh, will find his desires accomplished by Samose.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samose that Druggist W. A. Erman & Son are willing to pay for the treatments if it does not give the desired results. They make this offer generally and want all who are thin, weak, and out of health to get a box of Samose from them on these terms.

extends west about 627 feet.

for all township purposes, not to exceed two mills; for all city or village purposes, not to exceed five mills; for all local school purposes, not to exceed five mills. The maximum rates in the fourth limitation are inclusive of levies for interest and sinking funds
and exclusive of any special levy provided for by a vote of the electors,
special assessments, levies for road taxes that may be worked out by the taxpayers, and levies and assessments in special districts created for road or ditch improvements. The evident purpose of the maximum rates in the fourth limitation is to prevent one taxing board or authority from taking advantage of reduced levies made by other taxing boards or authorities and increasing its levy so as to bring the aggregate to the maximum limit of ten mills. Take, for example, the city of Wapakoneta. If the state levy is one-half mill, the county one and one-half mills, the township one-half mill and the school one and one-half mills, the city council would be prevented from levying six mills to make up the maximum of ten mills, but would be confined to the maximum of five mills,
making the total nine mills.

"Local taxing boards and authorities at the time of making their estimates will not be advised as to the amount levied by other taxing authorities, and, consequently, will not know whether the aggregate in their taxing district will exceed the ten mills authorized by law. Each one should therefore make an estimate of the amount of money needed and certify the same to the county auditor, whereupon the budget commission will determine the rate to be levied for each purpose and so adjust the levies that none of the limitations provided by law will be exceeded.

"In making such adjustment the budget commission is authorized to reduce any or all the items in any budget, but may not increase the total of any budget or item herein, and,
in order that this duty may be intelligently performed, the auditor
should require each taxing authority to furnish in its budget the information required by law. Sample blanks for budgets were recently mailed to all auditors, and in the event that levies or estimates have already been made by local authorities the auditor should require all boards to furnish the additional information called for in accordance with the blank forms."

MAINE SKELETON

Stands Specter Like in Cofferdam After Water Had Been Reduced to 15 Feet.

Havana, June 21.—The skeleton of the Maine, coral encumbered and swarming with grimy workmen engaged in cleaning the upper works and exploring as far as possible the exposed interior spaces, stood specter like above the pool within the cofferdam, when the water level was reduced to fifteen feet. One additional foot had been pumped out during the night. The reduction served to reveal a large area hitherto entirely submerged; every additional inch dis-closes increased evidence of the terrible force of the explosion.

The lowering of the water below
the level of the spar deck amidships shows the deck abreast the engine room on the port side greatly bulged up, under which the whole side of the ship appears to have been blown up.
Protruding from this aperture are twisted masses of steel, apparently steam pipes and other appurtenances
of the main engines, but all so distorted and corroded as to defy identification for the present.

Along the water on the starboard side is visible the long row of dead lights of the berth deck adjacent to the ward room and some of the officers' quarters.

An examination of these will be impossible until the water level has been further reduced.

In explanation of the stern superstructure the searchers found an ivory tilted saber in a fair state of preservation. It doubtless belonged to a Lieutenant, now Major, Albertus W. Catlin, the officer in command of the ship's marine guard, and recently commanding the expeditionary brigade of marines at Guantanamo.

They also found in the captain's cabin a small compass, much corroded;
a bottle of bay rum, perfectly preserved; small toilet articles and a quantity of chinaware, belonging to the wardroom and officers' staterooms.

The leak which developed in the cofferdam has been located and stopped up.

Love at first sight may sometimes
be merely a blind.

HEROES.

I read about the warlike guy who smiling goes to battle; and naught can still his joyous cry, and nothing him can rattle. But nobler than the man who wins renown with battle axes, is he who springs some sunny grins while coughing up his taxes. The captain who, in time of wreck, is free from fear's emotion, who calmly walks his sinking deck, alone upon the ocean, deserves a wreath upon his brow; he's surely smooth as wax is; but O the man who wears a smile while coughing up his taxes! I've seen a brave policeman walk where vicious knives were lying, and bullets barely missed his back, and bricks and knives were flying; I've seen the wild beast tamer fool with savage bears and jackals; but O the man who's calm and cool when coughing up his taxes! Let oak leaves on his brow be laid, let nothing be denied him! All other heroes wilt and fade beside him! No greater shall be found while earth revolves upon its axis—this lolly soul of sterling worth, who smiles when paying taxes!

IMPORTANCE OF CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

Columbus, June 21. In the interest of a Conservative Constitution, a campaign of education has been inaugurated under the auspices of the Ohio State Board of Commerce.

It is the announced purpose of the movement to make Ohio the best state
in the Union in which to earn a living,
to operate a business and to own property.

It is pointed out that by far the most important proposition confronting the people of the State of Ohio is the Constitutional Convention which will be convened in January next.

Delegates to this convention will be named at the November election. Nominations will be by petition and the election will be on non-partisan ballots.

When the voters of the state appreciate that those selected as delegates will be called upon to "alter, revise and amend" the Constitution they will take a real interest in the effort to see that men of ability and integrity are named as delegates.

The Constitutional Convention is of far more importance than a session of the Legislature. The General Assembly is merely permitted to enact laws within the provisions of the Constitution, while the coming convention will erect the foundations on which future Legislatures will build laws.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ohio State Board of Commerce authority was given to create a "Constitution Educational Fund."
An invitation is extended to all patriotic citizens to contribute to this fund.
A special finance committee was named to look after the expenditures.
The special finance committee is composed of the following:

Edward L. Buchwalter, Springfield,
president American Seeding Machine
company; president The Citizens National Bank.

George E. Pomeroy, Toledo, president The George E. Pomeroy Real Estate company; president First National Bank, Bellevue.
Samuel Scoville, Cleveland, member
finance committee, Society for Savings;
director Peerless Motor company;
vice president and treasurer Cleveland
Electric Illuminating company.

Edwin R. Sharp, president of the State Savings Bank and Trust company, Columbus, was named as treasurer for the fund.

The plans for "Constitution Making for Ohio" under the auspices of the Ohio State Board of Commerce have the approval of all the members of the executive committee, as follows:

Edward L. Buchwalter, Springfield;
Allen R. Foote, Columbus; H. E.
Hackenberg, Cleveland; James J.
Heekin, Cincinnati; George E. Pomeroy, Toledo; Leopold Rauli, Dayton; Samuel Scoville, Cleveland; Gilbert H.
Stewart, Columbus; George W. Yost, Bellaire.

At the instance of the Executive Committee of the Ohio State Board of Commerce, named above, this address
has been issued:

Do you want to do a profitable business in Ohio without being compelled to evade the provisions of its Constitution?

If so, you must recognize the fact that it is absolutely necessary to provide reliable safeguards in the New Constitution which will place an effective limit on the power of taxation
and prevent unnecessary restrictions
on business enterprise.

For the accomplishment of this purpose every person interested in the prosperity of the state should be willing to keep up this campaign.

A sound public policy cannot be established unless it is based upon sound economic constitutional provisions.

To secure the formation and adoption of such provisions a state-wide Campaign of Education on the subject of Constitution Making for Ohio must be entered upon at once and be continued until the New Constitution is adopted by the people.

To reach the people with this educational work it is necessary to employ the columns of the public press and of trade and class publications; to secure the services of able public speakers; to make addresses whenever and wherever an opportunity is offered; and to employ experts to prepare statistics necessary for the information of the Constitutional Convention and for the people.

By employing these means and methods the people of Ohio can secure the formulation and adoption of a New State Constitution which will be a continuing source of benefit and satisfaction as long as it endures; a Constitution that will be a model for every state in the Union, a landmark in the development of industrial and economic prosperity, as serviceable for the establishment of justice and as stable a foundation for representative Government as have been the Constitutions of the thirteen original states and the Constitution of the United States.

WILL RECLAIM OHIO SWAMP GROUND

There are more unoccupied swamp lands east of the Rocky Mountains
subject to reclamation by the government and by private capital than there are arid lands in the west, and within possibly a year the government may authorize bond issues for reclamation work in the east and south, if the influence of the National Irrigation Congress is as far-reaching as it was at the time it worked for the Roosevelt reclamation act and the consequent United States reclamation service.

That the Irrigation Congress will be able to forward this movement is not improbable, as this year's sessions of the organization are to be held in Chicago, where scores of the nation's most influential men are interested actively in the work.

The areas east of the Rocky Mountains, which figuratively mark the eastern boundary of the Irrigation territories, that the government may reclaim and put at the disposal of the farmer comprise approximately 75,000, 000 acres of swamp and overflowed
lands.

Ohio has 145,000 acres. This enormous total is given by C.
G. Elliott, chief of drainage investigations for the government, and has started the business end. Those lands which have successfully been transformed into profit-producing farms by states, the government's acreage for those lands is given as follows:

State.	Acres.
Indiana	625,000
Ohio	155,917
Pennsylvania	50,000
Maryland	192,000
Virginia	800,000
West Virginia	23,900

To persuade the Federal Congress to recommend and authorize bond issues for swamp land, reclamation will probably be an important part of the proceedings of the Chicago meeting of the National Irrigation Congress and Chicago business and railway men interested in this phase of the work will lend their efforts toward the success of this movement, which already has been launched and given considerable impetus.

Modern and Ancient China.

By WM. G. FRIZELL.

OUR ship reached Hongkong harbor at about 4 o'clock in the morning. Sampans surrounded us as we entered the port. Peculiar sailing craft, prominent for their huge sails ribbed with crossbeams, were scattered here and of the spectator. The din and noise of the actor's voice. The scenery is changed by simply shifting a few articles on the stage. During the most tragic and pathetic parts children play Chinese tag and other games at long our sympathies went out to a mother of bound feet whose baby had just died. The captain stated that death on the boat was very common among third class passengers. A medicine man had given the little one some concoction of lizards or beetles just before leaving, and it proved fatal. The heartbroken mother received gifts from her sympathetic fellow passengers, but she refused to be comforted. Some Chinese students of modern medicine among the second class passengers took advantage of the event by lecturing from charts posted on long poles. They sold a great many drugs on the way up.

The country through which we passed had a varied interest. Part was low, with water covered rice fields, and here and there were bamboo groves. The heights were often capped with pagodas, one being nine stories high, with a large tree growing in the roof. There were but few villages along the shores, but many river craft of all kinds.

The docks at Canton were crowded carried all sorts of fantastic, gaudily colored decorations. After this came something in carved ice that represented a castle. Farther down the street it melted and fell to pieces. Next followed a sedan chair full of very practical looking men's shoes. There was more clanging, and the bride's sedan chair, all silvery white, approached. She was being carried to the groom's home to meet and marry him, whom probably a go-between had obtained and whom she had never seen.

We visited many of the shops and factories and saw ivory being carved, jade being cut and polished by hand and silk looms run by hand power, where the finest kinds of heavy brocade silks are made.

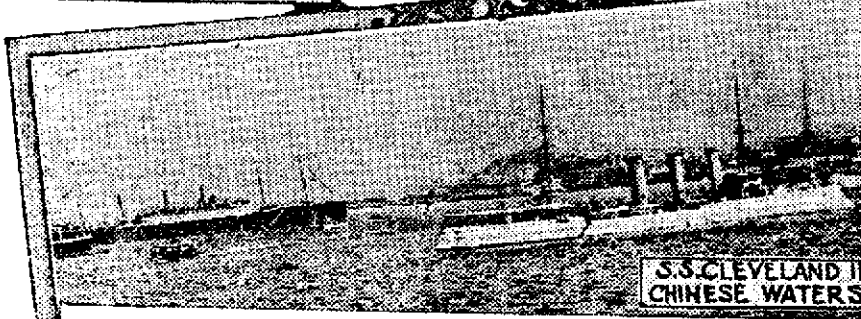

We went to some of the old temples and pagodas and saw their numerous gods and idols. We climbed on top of the old wall, centuries old. The ancient water clock, the curious city of the dead, the temple of Confucius and the abandoned examination halls were included in the round of regular sights.

there, while above us the peak towered some two thousand feet out of the sea. The island stands as a sentinel guarding the approach of the Pearl river, on the banks of which lies the city of Canton.

The view from the deck of the Cleveland at night was glorious. The long stretch of flickering lights which crowned the mountain might easily have been mistaken for a new constellation. With an area of twenty square miles and many sheltered bays, this harbor, into whose protection we had sailed, is one of the finest in the world.

Since 1841 the island of Hongkong has been a British possession. The population is cosmopolitan, but out of her 300,000 inhabitants 250,000 are Chinese. Before British possession thousands of bloodthirsty pirates sailed up and down the rough coast. Today Victoria, by which name the city is known, is the "Gibraltar of the east."

We attended one of the largest of the Chinese theaters. Europeans pay twice the admission fee of natives, but the natives are driven off the seats to make room for foreigners. The Chinese theater is primitive in the extreme. Much is left to the imagination one end of the stage and at times are almost under the actors' feet. No women appeared on the stage, their part being played by men.

On one occasion one of our party, being venturesome, acted as guide and, ignorant himself of what might be the result, volunteered to show us a native home. We went into one of the doors adjoining a Chinese shop on a small side street, climbed two flights of stairs and a ladder and found ourselves in the private apartments of a native family. Here they lived in poorly ventilated, close quarters, but in happy enjoyment of their humble home life. We admired the artistic work on a baby pillow. When we offered to buy it the money was refused, and it was presented to us as a souvenir of our visit. This pillow was made of clay, burned and glazed and highly decorated. To soften the hard surface some kind of cloth is usually wound around it. We were becoming very much interested when the man of the house entered and with angry tones and wild gestures ordered us to depart.

Canton is situated ninety miles up the Pearl river. Our trip was full of experiences. Soon after leaving Hong-with curious Chinese to see our arrival. At the landing place we marched through a squad of a hundred policemen, all showing formidable revolvers. To get our sedan chairs it was necessary to walk through the narrow, packed, cozy streets for about ten minutes to the foreign quarter. Before the large foreign hotel were gathered a hundred sedan chairs, with three hundred and more chair men to carry us, and guides and soldiers. We were divided into squads of ten, with a Chinese guide and two soldiers to each squad.

In these chairs we plunged back into old Canton. It has been described often as a great, seething bazaar. The streets are from four to eight feet wide, lined with substantial one story brick buildings with open fronts to all the shops. The streets and shops are all crowded with a talking mass of humanity. There are no vehicles in these narrow streets, but everything is carried suspended on poles. In one of the streets we had to crowd up against the walls to let a wedding procession pass. Through the crowd came a straggling band with shrill, clanging instruments that announced the approach of the wedding. On poles were

Some visited the execution grounds. They are in a pottery, and the workmen go about their business with seeming unconcern while a big Chinaman with a heavy sword chops off heads. When the members of the eastern cruise were there some seven or eight decapitated bodies were strewn about the pottery.

A great sight of Canton, though, is old Canton itself. Here in the narrow streets are the moving crowds, mostly of men with waists bare or shirts loosely gathered around their necks with heads half shaven and cues hanging down to their ankles. Now and then stalks leisurely a small footed woman.

There are streets of curios, streets of silks, streets of furniture makers and streets of meat and fish and vegetable vendors, and streets of restaurants. These streets are twisting and bending and labyrinthine.

We came back to the Cleveland in the evening without any casualties. Some one says that Canton gives a taste of China. While it gives a flavor that will never wear off, yet it is rather a slum flavor and does not represent Peking and the great Chinese empire.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS.

LONGEVITY OF TIES.

The Pennsylvania company lumber department has just taken out a tie which was placed in the tracks at Hamlet ten years ago, and on inspection it was found that the zinc chloride treating which it underwent before it was placed in service has preserved it remarkably.

"It is in condition to last ten years more," said an official of the lumber department. "The zinc chloride, although it is not considered quite as good as the creosote, costs much less and lasts a long time. It has been said that the zinc treating interferes with the electric block signals. This is not true if good strong batteries are used. The New York Central has used them for years with electric block signals, but has never felt any ill effects."

WHAT RAILROADS DO.

We fail to realize the tremendous factor the railroads are in the purchasing world. Think for instance of the hundreds of millions spent by the Pennsylvania and the New York Central for their new terminals in New York City alone. Think of the excellent wages paid to the skilled labor employed directly on the railroads, like locomotive engineers, and of the high class clerical work of the passenger and freight departments. Think for a moment that every supply furnished to the railroads must be of the finest quality—the rails, the springs, the upholstery, the wood work and all the fixtures—for nothing common place or ordinary can be used. Quality is the first requirement, for it means, so far as equipment is concerned, not only safety, but comfort and elegance.

Hogan Will Rule That Woman's Laws Are Constitutional

Columbus, O., June 21.—Close on the heels of the announcement yesterday that vigorous and sustained attacks are to be made upon the workmen's compensation and the woman's nine hour workday laws enacted by the last general assembly, comes a statement by Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan that in all probability these laws will be sustained in the courts and will remain in full operation.

While the question of the constitutionality of the woman's nine hour bill was just submitted yesterday to Attorney General Hogan he has been watching the bill closely ever since it was introduced, and declares that he will hold every section of it to be well framed and not in conflict with the constitution.

He also will rule that the workmen's compensation law, creating a state insurance for injured employees is wholly legal, and will base his opinion upon the recent decision in the case of the Oregon law.

TUBERCULOSIS EXHIBIT CAR

Following is the abstract of a paper on "The Tuberculosis Exhibit Car" by Miss Winifred Doyle, secretary of the Missouri Association for the Relief and Control of Tuberculosis, St. Louis, delivered before the Sociological Section of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis at St. Louis, June 21, at 4 p. m.

Miss Doyle told how through the interest of the St. Louis and San Francisco R. R. a first class passenger coach was donated and fitted up for exhibit purposes. The railroad also gave transportation to five people connected with the work and furnished free ice and gas, in addition to hauling the car the entire length of its system in Missouri.

Before the tour was started a time schedule was made out by which thirty-eight principal towns on the "Eliseo in Missouri," and twenty-eight counties were reached, a distance of nearly 2000 miles were covered. The St. Louis Municipal Commission, offered the use of its well framed exhibit for the work, and this was found well adapted for the purpose. It was further arranged that the secretary should travel from five to seven days in advance of the car, making all of the necessary arrangements with the local boards of health, physicians, city officials, business men and club women for the exhibit, cards being regularly mailed ahead showing what was desired of her.

The car left St. Louis August 1st, visiting the towns along the Mississippi as far south as Caruthersville, through the southern part of the state to Springfield, then through the lead and zinc mining districts to Kansas City. In Kansas City the exhibit was taken from the car and placed in Convention Hall where it remained for two days. From Kansas City the car visited towns on the way to Springfield. From Springfield the car visited the towns on trunk lines to St. Louis, the schedule having been lengthened owing to a popular demand for a longer stay in towns.

After returning to St. Louis and remaining there a week, the car was taken out over the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad, every assistance the railroad could give being accorded. About twenty-nine towns in South Missouri were visited. In several towns the car was welcomed by a band and the greatest enthusiasm shown. Arriving in the towns on the M. & T., the car was taken to the State Fair at Sedalia, where part of the exhibit was placed in the west end of the Art Building, the remaining part being left in the car. Hundreds of visitors saw both exhibits.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Hoptoads and Turtles Make Real Good Pets

"I don't think that Mary Jones should have a hoptoad for a pet," asked Evelyn. "I must admit it's awfully cute to see him hop out of the grass when she calls and take a fly from her fingers, but it always makes me feel shivery."

"I don't think that Mary is queer," answered daddy. "I think you are queer for feeling shivery. A hoptoad is one of God's creatures quite as much as a bird or a cat or a dog, and while it may not be so intelligent or such good company, it is a quiet and useful little citizen and is beautifully clean in its habits."

"I know a little girl who had a turtle for a pet, and he isn't any prettier than a hoptoad, but he was as much fun as a barrel full of monkeys."

"Tell us about him, please," said Evelyn, "and I'll see if I can't learn to like Mary's toad."

"Well," began daddy, "this girl's name was Hattie, and her folks went every summer to their camp on the seashore. One August afternoon there came lumbering out of the tall beach grass a big black and yellow box turtle who proceeded to nose all around the camp. Hattie and her brother Bob went wild over him, and he didn't appear to be afraid of them at all. But when any grown person or the dogs or cats came near him 'bing' would go in his head and claws, and he'd look like nothing but your mother's back hair comb."

"The children at once had an old wash basin sunk in the ground and filled it with water and then got the cook to chop them up some raw meat. This they put in the glass top of a fruit jar, and Billkins, for so they promptly named him—found the dish slid around too much, so he put out his crooked front paws to steady it and ate all the pieces like a little gentleman."

"He would usually disappear during the day, but would always turn up in the evening to get his meal of raw meat and to have his head rubbed."

"When the family went back to the city they took Billkins along and tried to keep him in the back yard, but he developed a habit of digging under fences and scaring neighbors, so Hattie had to give him to the menagerie."

"Here he lives happily with half a dozen turtles of other kinds, and every Saturday when Hattie and Bob go up to see him he knows them and scratches at the glass to get to them."

"So you see," finished daddy, "almost anything can be made a pet if you are big hearted enough to love it."

SUGAR TRUST HEAD DEFENDS COMBINATION

HAVEMYER DECLARES PUBLIC
DERIVED MORE BENEFIT FROM COMBINE THAN
COMPANY DID.

Defends Action of His Father, Late
O. H. Havemyer—Says Removal of Duty on Sugar Would Kill Domestic Industry.

Washington, June 21.—That a reasonable combination of big businesses is beneficial to the public was the statement of Harris Havemyer when he resumed his testimony before the Hardwick sugar trust investigating committee today. He said that he believed that the consolidation of the National, the New York and the Yonkers refining companies into the National Sugar Refining Co. of New Jersey resulted in a larger benefit to the public than to the company itself.

Mr. Havemyer again defended the act of his father, the late C. H. Havemyer. He asserted among other things that no one other man with hold on the sugar production of the country could have an over production by 30 percent of the refined sugar and that if the duty of sugar was removed the entire cane and beet sugar industry in the country would be killed.

OBITUARY

DAVID HOHL.

David Hohl, a well known veteran of the civil war, died at his home at 169 Tenth street at 5:40 o'clock Wednesday morning after a long illness, extending from last winter. Anaemia developed and for the past seven weeks Mr. Hohl has been bedfast and no hopes were given for his recovery. The deceased was born in Wurtemberg, Germany seventy years ago and when a lad of fourteen emigrated to America with his father, John Hohl, settling near Cleveland. He enlisted in the civil war and served with the regiment which was the smallest Ohio regiment, who were with General W. T. Sherman in his successful campaigns that culminated in his famous march to the sea, and became attached to his staff, being mustered out in this honored capacity at the end of the war.

The deceased was married to Miss Mary Mollert, who is now deceased, and five children survive. Mrs. Peter Giegl, John D. Hohl, Mrs. John F. Stiegl, Misses Anna and Elizabeth, who live at home.

The funeral will take place at two o'clock Friday afternoon from the late home. Rev. Bohan Schmidt conducting the services. The G. A. R. will hold services at the grave.

MRS. CHARLOTTE MARVIN

Mrs. Charlotte Marvin, wife of Mr. Smith A. Marvin, died at her home, rear of 55 Jefferson street, on Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock after an illness of some weeks, hastened by a stroke of paralysis sustained about three weeks ago. This was the third attack. The deceased was aged about 61 years and was a woman who was held in high esteem by those who knew her. The funeral services will be held at the home on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock and the interment will be made in Cedar Hill cemetery.

WOMAN BASEBALL MAGNATE HAVING TROUBLES GALORE

Cleveland, O., June 21.—Mrs. Helen Britton, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, whose suit for divorce has just been followed by the starting of action at St. Louis to oust her from control of the Cardinals stated today that she had not yet decided what steps she would take in the latter case. The action at St. Louis, based on the finding of what is purported to be the original will of M. Stanley Robinson, who left Mrs. Britton the baseball team, has been brought on behalf of former Treasurer Abercrombie of the Cardinals.

Should the action succeed President Steininger of the Cardinals, who is one of the administrators of the Robinson estate and Mrs. Britton's manager of the team, will be ousted in favor of Abercrombie.

The latter was also one of the administrators of the estate, but claims he was ousted through a conspiracy between Mrs. Britton and Steininger. Mrs. Britton, however, declared today that Abercrombie had merely been induced to resign and that his resignation has already been turned over to the probate court.

WILL REVISE JUVENILE LAW

Columbus, June 21.—Governor Harmon today appointed Judge Daniel Pabst of Crawford county, and Arthur D. Baldwin of Cuyahoga a commission to revise and consolidate laws pertaining to children. The appointment was made under a recent act of the legislature.

RUNAWAY - GIRLS ARE LOCATED

The police department spent most of the night looking for two Newark girls, aged 15 and 17 years respectively, who were believed to have run away from home. The girls were sent after a basket containing the family washing of one of the families and they failed to show up after leaving home. This morning the basket of clothes was found in the yard of a neighbor.

Later in the morning the police received a telephone message from a woman living in Licking township near the city, stating that the two girls were at her home, and had been there all night.

The woman is of good character and is a member of the Juvenile Aid Society, and promised that she would bring the girls to the city this afternoon. No reason was given for the unusual action of the girls in leaving home without giving their parents some information regarding intended movements.

DYNAMITE BOMB CAUSED PANIC

Chicago, June 21.—Guests at the Blackstone, Congress and Auditorium hotels and residents of exclusive Michigan avenue were thrown into a panic early today by the explosion of a heavily charged dynamite bomb in a manhole in the heart of the Loop district. Buildings rocked as though in an earthquake and hotel guests rushed madly about in their night clothes. Two hundred policemen were unable to find any trace of the bomb throwers, but the action is attributed to labor "sluggers."

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

A civil service examination was held Tuesday evening in the council chamber under the direction of the civil service commission, consisting of Messrs. I. M. Phillips, E. Carey Norris and S. L. Redman and the secretary of the commission, Ray Martin. Ten or twelve persons took the examination for positions which are filled by appointment under the civil service rules. The examination consisted in testing the qualifications of the aspirants to city jobs for policemen, firemen, engineers, stationery men, trimmers, house men, meter readers, clerks and operators.

BUFFALO FISH FOR LAKE ERIE

Because carp are in great demand and Lake Erie waters cannot supply fishermen with all they need to fill orders, the state fish and game commission, within a few weeks, will begin to transport large quantities of buffalo fish from the Ohio river to the lake.

Some of the buffalo variety weigh as high as 14 pounds and according to Commissioner Sparks have a better quality of meat than carp.

"Cheap fish is in great demand," said Sparks yesterday. "The Ohio market demands a fish that can be sold on a quality basis."

It is probable that the fish commission, in addition to transporting the buffalo fish for breeding purposes during the winter will propagate this variety and in the early spring plant large quantities of eggs in Lake Erie.

SEEKS MATCH WITH WOLGAST

Chicago, June 21.—"Kid" Trembles, who claims to be the lightweight champion of Australia, is now today seeking a match with Ed Wolgast. Trembles says he will bet $5,000 that he can trim the champion for any distance. He is not adverse to taking on Packer McFarland, Knockout Brown or "Hardy Tommy" Murphy. Trembles is a negro and says his color has kept him from securing matches.

Denver, Colo., June 21.—Charles Childen, formerly a well known Baptist preacher of Birmingham, Ala., and Catherine Richardson, a pretty stenographer are held today in the county jail under $1,500 bonds each, to await trial in the criminal court on a statutory charge. The arrest of the preacher came as a result of months of search by Childen's wife, Margaret. The couple were married 12 years ago and have a ten year old son.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the vision of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at 50 cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

ROMANCE

Bellevue, June 21.—A romance of the days before the war culminated here in the elopement and marriage of W. S. Howard, a Civil war veteran, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, each of whom is 70 years of age. Howard lives here and Mrs. Hill resides in Holgate, near here.

Before the Civil war started Mrs. Hill and Howard were playmates. The girl, however, married James Hill, one of Howard's chums, while the latter went to war. They lived happily and eight years ago Mrs. Hill was made a widow through the death of her husband. Howard, a few years later, began calling on her and the old love sprang up anew. Without saying anything to their friends or relatives, the couple took an auto ride to Norwalk and were wedded. Mrs. Hill had been visiting in Bellevue and the friends with whom she had been staying thought she had returned to her home.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Hoptoads and Turtles Make
Real Good Pets

The Hoptoad That Evelyn Couldn't Like

"Isn't it queer, daddy, that Mary Jones should have a hoptoad for a pet?" asked Evelyn. "I must admit it's awfully cute to see him hop out of the grass when she calls and take a fly from her fingers, but it always makes me feel shivery."

"I don't think that Mary is queer," answered daddy. "I think you are queer for feeling shivery. A hoptoad is one of God's creatures quite as much as a bird or a cat or a dog, and, while it may not be so intelligent or such good company, it is a quiet and useful little citizen and is beautifully clean in its habits."

"I know a little girl who had a turtle for a pet, and he isn't any prettier than a hoptoad, but he was as much fun as a barrel full of monkeys."

"Tell us about him, please," said Evelyn, "and I'll see if I can't learn to like Mary's toad."

"Well," began daddy, "this girl's name was Hattie, and her folks went every summer to their camp on the seashore. One August afternoon there came lumbering out of the tall beach grass a big black and yellow box turtle who proceeded to nose all around the camp. Hattie and her brother Bob went wild over him, and he didn't appear to be afraid of them at all. But when any grown person or the dogs or cats came near him 'bing' would go in his head and claws, and he'd look like nothing but your mother's back hair comb."

"The children at once had an old wash basin sunk in the ground and filled it with water and then got the cook to chop them up some raw meat. This they put in the glass top of a fruit jar, and Billkins—for so they promptly named him—found the dish slid around too much, so he put out his crooked front paws to steady it and ate all the pieces like a little gentleman."

"He would usually disappear during the day, but would always turn up in the evening to get his meal of raw meat and to have his head rubbed."

"When the family went back to the city they took Billkins along and tried to keep him in the back yard, but he developed a habit of digging under fences and scaring neighbors, so Hattie had to give him to the menagerie."

"Here he lives happily with half a dozen turtles of other kinds, and every Saturday when Hattie and Bob go up to see him he knows them and scratches at the glass to get to them."

"So you see," finished daddy, "almost anything can be made a pet if you are big hearted enough to love it."

OLD FASHIONED

Celebrations

THING OF PAST

Thus far nothing has been done in the way of having an old fashioned Fourth of July celebration in Newark. While there will be numerous excursions, as there always are, and many people will spend the day at the lake and parks, it is not probable that there will be any celebration. To amount to anything. Whatever celebrations occur will be by societies and private parties. The old fashioned Fourth of July celebration is a thing of the past. The canonade, the procession, the wagonloads of pretty girls in red, white and blue, the prancing steed of the grand marshal, the fife and drum, the reading of the Declaration of Independence are no more.

'PHONE TROUBLE

GROWING LESS

One "Party" Insisted Upon Calling a Subscriber Backward—"Load" Still Very Heavy.

The "trouble" attending the transfer of the local telephone system from manual to automatic is growing less and the experts in charge of the work are beginning to see the light. From now on the service will improve as the lines are straightened and the instruments adjusted. A big force of men is working day and night.

Fully 35,000 calls were put through the exchange on Tuesday, this number being far above normal. One subscriber notified Central that she had made 100 calls by phone during the day.

A large percentage of the "trouble" is not due to the system.

MISSING WOMAN

FROM THIS CITY

FOUND AT COSHOCTON

Arrived Without Funds After Walking All the Way, a Distance of 37 Miles.

Coshocton, June 21. Mrs. Wiley Heaps, a demented woman, who disappeared from her home in Newark last Saturday morning, was located at the home of John Wagoner, on South Sixth street, this city, Tuesday evening, and accompanied by her husband, returned to Newark on the midnight train. The woman arrived at the Wagoner home Sunday evening after walking all the way from Painesburg along the Pennsylvania tracks, and asked to be allowed to rest for several days, after which she explained that she expected to continue her travels to Baltimore, Md., her former home.

Mrs. Heaps was without funds, and after leaving her Newark home Saturday morning walked to Painesburg, where she spent the night. As her actions, while at the Wagoner home, did not arouse any suspicions as to her mental condition, the local authorities were not notified and her husband could get no clue to her whereabouts. Finally it was learned that the woman had been seen passing through Conesville by the Pennsylvania operator and Mr. Heaps came to Coshocton Tuesday afternoon. Last evening the missing woman was located at the Wagoner home and was taken to police headquarters by Officer Frejaque.

The unfortunate woman is the mother of four children, the eldest being ten years of age. She has suffered from mental weakness before and for a time was confined in the state hospital at Columbus.

Pierre Vedrine, winner of the race of the recent Paris-Madrid trip, won the second stage in 43 minutes and 27 seconds. Three of the contestants lost their way and were forced to land many miles from the course.

Bolton of Boston, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans, and Mrs. Belle C. Harris of Emporia, Kas., national president of the Women's Relief Corps.

A Physician's Report on Tuberculosis Medicine

"Have used Eckman's Alternative in several cases of tubercular glands of the neck, with excellent results every time. In one case it cost me $50, for the girl was put on it only until she could arrange to be operated, and in a short time an operation was not needed. I suppose your records are just as fine as of old. You know my faith in it. Eckman's Alternative is effective in other forms. Read what Mrs. Garvin says:—
Gentlemen: 'I have gained twenty-two pounds since last February and my baby is in perfect health. She is now four months old. I have been waiting since she was born to see how I would get along. I am now doing as my work, have been ever since she was four weeks old, and I am steadily gaining. I do not cough or raise phlegm any more. I believe my lung trouble cured.' (Signed Affidavit) Mrs. M. H. Garvin. Note—Mrs. Garvin is the mother of seven children.

Eckman's Alternative cures Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence. For Sale by all leading druggists and Birman & Son, druggists, Newark, N. J.
